About Don Puchalski

Don has lived in DuPage County most of his life. He grew up in Elmhurst and attended Churchville Jr High and Addison Trail High School. Don presently resides in Addison with his beautiful wife Ginny, a public school teacher for 18 years and his two daughters Katie age 21 attending Loyola University and Jill age 19 attending Columbia College.

Don is an attorney with the Law offices of Donald E Puchalski, with offices in Chicago and Addison. Don was a special assistant with the Attorney General for 25 years, prosecuting cases for the Illinois Department of Labor.

Don enjoys public service and considers it an honor and privilege. Don is presently Chairman of the Transportation Committee, this is one of the most important committees responsible for the roads and safety of the residents of DuPage County. Don is also Chairman of the Impact Fee and Vice Chairman of the Transparency Committee. Don serves on Finance, Judicial and Public Safety and Strategic Planning Committee. He is also a Commissioner of the DuPage County Housing Authority. Prior to joining the DuPage County Board Don has served 6 years on the Addison School District 4 Board of Education. He spent 8 Years on the Addison Police Pension Board and was elected as a Trustee of Addison Township.

While serving on the DuPage County Board Don has;

- Voted to reduce and freeze County Board salary
- Given a portion of his salary to DuPage Charities
- Supported tough ethics reform and full transparency

Don supported open government and making DuPage County the most transparent county in Illinois by;

- Placing the county's checkbook online
- All bids and contracts online
- Supported the toughest ethics ordinance in Illinois

Don is committed to making DuPage County and District 1 a great place to live, work and raise a family;

- He demands that the county spend within its means, have a balanced budget and a AAA bond rating
- The county board has REDUCED your real estate taxes and tax levy 7 of the last 10 years

DuPage County residents are entitled to good government, government that spends less but does more.

Don works hard for his constituents.
