COLLEGE OF DUPAGE COMMUNITY COLLEGE DISTRICT 502

Objection

NOW COMES THE OBJECTOR, Edward Franckowiak, who resides at 28w563 Lester St., West Chicago IL 60185, a residence within College of DuPage Community College District 502, who states:

1. The Objector is a legal voter of College of DuPage Community College District 502.
2. The Objector’s interest in the matter is that of a citizen desirous of seeing that the laws governing the filing of nomination papers for public office are properly complied with and that only qualified candidates have their names appear on the ballot as candidates for public office.
3. Nomination papers were timely filed with the Secretary of the Board of Trustees of College of DuPage Community College District 502. Those papers consisted of
 - a. A verified Statement of Candidacy executed by Husna T. Ghani, residing at 95 Livery Ct, Oak Brook IL, for the office of “Board of Trustee [sic] College of DuPage” in “District 502” at the election to be held on April 4, 2017, but not stating whether the office sought is for the unexpired 2-year term, or one of the full 6-year terms available.
 - b. A receipt for filing a Statement of Economic Interests with the DuPage County Clerk on December 12, 2016, for the office of “College of DuPage Candidate for Board of Trustee [sic]” with no qualification of whether the position sought was the 2-year term or one of the 6-year terms.
 - c. Eight unnumbered petition signature sheets containing a total of 86 (more or less) signatures of persons purported to be qualified to sign that petition.
4. 10 ILCS 5/10-4 mandates that “A petition, when presented or filed, shall not be withdrawn, altered, or added to....”

I. – Jurisdictional Note

1. “Certificates of nomination and nomination papers, ... being filed as required by this [Election] Code, and being in apparent conformity with the provisions of this [10 ILCS 5] Act, shall be deemed to be valid unless objection thereto is duly made in writing” 10 ILCS 5/8.
2. Unnumbered petition signatures sheets lack apparent conformity on their faces, and the Secretary of the Community College District would be justified in refusing to certify the name of the purported candidate. North v. Hinkle, 692 N.E.2d 352, 295 Ill. App. 3d 84, 229 Ill. Dec. 579

(1998) (Because nomination papers were facially deficient, local election official was under no obligation to certify plaintiffs' names for the ballot.)

3. Because within seven days after filing the staff at the office of the Secretary of the Community College District sent a routine written notice to the petitioner accepting the petition (pursuant to 110

ILCS 805/3-7.10), the Secretary is estopped from now rejecting the petition based the lack of apparent conformity due to its facial deficiency. The lack in law of that alternate remedy for that fatal facial defect confirms that under 10 ILCS 5/10-9 this Electoral Board is the proper forum to now rule upon the issues presented.

II. – Unnumbered Petition Sheets

4. Section 10 ILCS 5/10-4 requires, among other things, that petition sheets “shall then be numbered consecutively.”
5. The dual purposes of that page numbering requirement are “(a) to guarantee identification and reference to specific pages and (b) to prevent tampering with the petitions, once filed.” Jones v. Dodendorf, 129 Ill.2d 564, 550 N.E.2d 556, 140 Ill.Dec. 671 (1990).
6. The page numbering requirement is mandatory. Jones v. Dodendorf, 129 Ill.2d 564, 550 N.E.2d 556, 140 Ill.Dec. 671 (1990); Wollan v. Jacoby, 274 Ill.App.3d 388, 653 N.E.2d 1303, 1307, 210 Ill.Dec. 841 (1st Dist. 1995); Hagen v. Stone, 277 Ill.App.3d 388, 660 N.E.2d 189, 213 Ill.Dec. 932 (1st Dist. 1995).
7. The Respondent has failed to perform a mandatory requirement of 10 ILCS 5/10-4, so the candidate’s petition is void ab initio and the all of objections to must be sustained.

8. A long line of cases has held that there is substantial compliance where an occasional page in the batch is unnumbered. But they have uniformly held that when none of the pages have been numbered, there is no compliance.
9. A topic from the reference work “ELECTION LAW 2016” published by the Illinois Institute for Continuing Legal Education (IICLE) is attached as Appendix A (with emphasis added).
10. Additionally, the pertinent part of 10 ILCS 5/10-4 provides the penalty: “No signature shall be valid or be counted in considering the validity or sufficiency of such petition unless the requirements of this Section are complied with.” The result is that all signatures are disqualified and the candidate has no valid signatures at all to count toward the minimum requirement of 50 valid signatures.
11. Lacking both actual noncompliance with a mandatory requirement, and constructive reduction of countable signatures to zero, the objectors entire petition must be overruled.

II. – Not Enough Valid Signers

1. Of the 86 signatories on the unnumbered petition pages, at least 36 are not eligible to sign, bringing the candidate below the minimum of 50 valid signatures.
2. Normally, a summary sheet would be attached to this objection petition that would show a listing of the lines numbers on each numbered page that is invalid, and columns for each of the possible reason, with the appropriate columns marked for each line entry.

3. Because the candidate did not number the pages, in violation of law, the objector cannot furnish such a summary.
4. In lieu of the customary summary, attached to this petition is Appendix B. It is a copy of each of the unnumbered sheets, with the reason each objected to signature in invalid.

III. - No Designation of Term

5. The headings of signature sheets numbered 1, 4, 5, 6 and 7 omit the name of the civil township in which the Respondent lives.
6. 110 ILCS 805/3-7.10 requires the township of the candidate's residence to be listed.
7. The Respondent has failed to fulfill the mandatory requirement of 110 ILCS 805/3-7.10, and pages 1, 4, 5, 6, and 7 must be stricken.
8. The remaining pages, 2 and 3, contain 24 purportedly valid signatures, but even if all of those 24 signatures are valid, the Respondent would have less than the minimum of 50 voters that is required by 110 ILCS 805/3-7.10. The failure to comply with this mandatory requirement is a fatal defect.

IV. - Relief Sought

WHEREFORE THE OBJECTOR PRAYS

1. That the purported nomination papers of Hosna T. Ghani for the office of member of the board of trustees of College of DuPage Community College District 502 be declared by this Electoral Board to be insufficient and not in compliance with the laws of the State of Illinois, and
2. That Rafath Walheed's name be stricken, and
3. That this Electoral Board enter its decision that the name of Rafath Walheed as a candidate for the office of member of the board of trustees of College of DuPage Community College District 502 BE NOT PRINTED on the official ballot at the Consolidated Election to be held on April 4, 2017.

3. [1.67] Pagination

The Election Code requires that the sheets containing voter signatures be numbered consecutively. 10 ILCS 5/7-10, 5/10-4. In Williams v. Butler, 35 Ill.App.3d 532, 341 N.E.2d 394, 397 (4th Dist. 1976), the court held that the failure to number 1 sheet out of 323 was “a mere technicality and cannot invalidate a petition” because it did not “relate to preservation of the integrity of the electoral process.” The same conclusion was reached in Stevenson v. County Officers Electoral Board, 58 Ill.App.3d 24, 373 N.E.2d 1043, 1044, 15 Ill.Dec. 571 (3d Dist. 1978), involving a 48-page petition. Accord In re White, No. 79-EB-29 (Chicago Electoral Board 1979). Consequently, many observers had thought that pagination was merely technical and a directory provision. Yet as with so many other provisions of the Election Code, the issue has proven to be problematic as no simple rule of law currently purports to cover all situations. Instead, a “sliding scale” of compliance, within various fact-specific scenarios, has emerged, leading inevitably to case-by-case adjudications.

This evolutionary process began when the Williams and Stevenson view was explicitly rejected by the Second District in Jones v. Dodendorf, 190 Ill.App.3d 557, 546 N.E.2d 92, 137 Ill.Dec. 468 (2d Dist. 1989). The Jones court ruled that the failure to number any of the pages was fatal. Such an omission, it held, frustrated the dual purposes of the Election Code (a) to guarantee identification and reference to specific pages and (b) to prevent tampering with the petitions, once filed. The Illinois Supreme Court, incidentally, refused to hear an appeal. See Jones v. Dodendorf, 129 Ill.2d 564, 550 N.E.2d 556, 140 Ill.Dec. 671 (1990).

The United States district court permanently enjoined the State Board of Elections and the DuPage County Electoral Board from enforcing Jones. See Moy v. Cowen, No. 91 C 8329 (N.D.Ill.), appeal dismissed, 958 F.2d 168 (7th Cir. 1992). The Seventh Circuit disposed of the objector’s appeal “without passing one way or the other on any aspect” of the injunction. 958 F.2d at 171. Nonetheless, it did comment: “But viewed ex ante, the requirement imposes no significant burden on candidates and aids election officials in coping with the flux of paper.” 958 F.2d at 170. Later, the Circuit Court of Cook County “chose to follow the rationale of Jones,” thereby invalidating a six-page petition. Lohse v. Cook County Officers Electoral Board, No. 93 CO 458 (Cook Cty.Cir. 1993).

The pagination issue became particularly complicated by four 1995 – 1997 First District appellate decisions. In Wollan v. Jacoby, 274 Ill.App.3d 388, 653 N.E.2d 1303, 1307, 210 Ill.Dec. 841 (1st Dist. 1995), the court held that §10-4 of the Election Code “leaves no room for discretion,” making pagination strictly mandatory. In Hagen v. Stone, 277 Ill.App.3d 388, 660 N.E.2d 189, 213 Ill.Dec. 932 (1st Dist. 1995), which involved an unnumbered petition, the court followed suit. However, the court in Robinson v. Carmichael, 286 Ill.App.3d 1128, 709 N.E.2d 1013, 237 Ill.Dec. 544 (1st Dist. 1997) (Rule 23), considered two completely unnumbered petitions of 10 and 18 pages. In restoring the candidacies, a sharply divided court held that “there is nothing in the statute that sets a deadline for compliance.” The candidate could have been notified by election authorities “that the Objector needed the pages numbered and could have allowed the candidate to rectify the problem.” This observation is especially interesting given the provisions in §§7-10 and 10-4 of the Election Code that the petition, when filed, shall not be withdrawn, altered, or added to.

Next, in King v. Pincham, No. 96-COEB-CO-01 (Cook Cty. Electoral Board 1996), the Cook County Electoral Board upheld a petition consisting of 4,427 sheets that contained some 100,000 signatures (75,000 more than the statutory minimum). The “defects” were that there were no pages numbered 1791 and 1792 and that 16 pages bearing no numbers at all were interspersed at 13 separate locations throughout the petitions. The electoral board observed that “none of the reported cases deals with such a large petition, with such a small relative number of errors.” Further, “no two of these pages bear the same number,” and “each page is identified by its own unique number,” imprinted by Bates stamper. The board found that the dual rationale of aiding in identifying and preventing tampering noted by the courts in both Wollan, supra, and Jones, supra, had been satisfied.

The appellate court affirmed in King v. Justice Party, 284 Ill.App.3d 886, 672 N.E.2d 900, 903, 220 Ill.Dec. 83 (1st Dist. 1996), and acknowledged, “[t]o be sure, Hagen, Wollan, and Jones each stand for the proposition that the page numbering provision of section 10-4 is mandatory.” However, the Hagen, supra, and Jones, supra, courts confronted entirely unnumbered petitions. Even the Jones court said that failure to number a single page was a less significant technical deviation. 546 N.E.2d at 94. Turning to Wollan, supra, the appellate court in King concluded: “[T]he case does seem to stand for the proposition that even the slightest deviation” is fatal and held that “[t]o the extent that Wollan can be so interpreted, we decline to follow it.” 672 N.E.2d at 903. One must simply avoid this potential pitfall by carefully assembling the nomination papers. See §1.96 below. Otherwise, the candidate will be swallowed into a legal sinkhole in which an electoral board or a court will inevitably decide whether there has been no compliance on the one hand and varying degrees of compliance (substantial or otherwise) on the other hand.

The Chicago Electoral Board also has exonerated filings that contained occasional deviations from pagination, finding substantial compliance. See, e.g., Noven v. Phelan, No. 11-EB-ALD-081 (Chicago Electoral Board 2011) (one unnumbered page between pages 54 and 55); Ziegler v. Lane, No. 11-EB-ALD-058 (Chicago Electoral Board 2011) (missing numbered page 2 out of 151 pages); Prince v. Douyon, No. 06-EB-RGA-10 (Chicago Electoral Board 2006) (absence of numbered page 48); Martin v. Olivier-Harris, No. 03-EB-ALD-034 (Chicago Electoral Board 2003) (96 sheets with pages 1 through 77 numbered in order, followed by pages 79 and 80 and then pages 82 through 99); Ivory v. Curtis, No. 97-EB-ALD-009 (Chicago Electoral Board 1997) (consecutive numbers from 1 to 40, except that page 20 was bound between pages 28 and 29); Hendon v. Davis, No. 02-EB-SS-10 (Chicago Electoral Board) (one unnumbered sheet), quoted with approval in Samuelson v. Cook County Officers Electoral Board, 2012 IL App (1st) 120581, ¶40, 969 N.E.2d 468, 360 Ill.Dec. 658. Accord Finch v. Magiasty, No. 97-MR-72 and No. 97-MR-73 (Tazewell Cty.Cir. 1997) (in Third Appellate District), Logan v. Sangamon County

Electoral Board, No. 98-MR-15 (Sangamon Cty.Cir. 1998), and Potts v. Kohn, No. 00-EB-WC-039 (Chicago Electoral Board 2000), all holding failure to number a few or a single signature sheet not fatal.

However, the Chicago Electoral Board has stricken several candidacies for failure to number consecutively any of the petition signature sheets, finding no compliance. See Wiley v. Clark, No. 16-EB-WC-11 (Chicago Electoral Board 2016); Raddatz v. Rivera, No. 11-EB-ALD-035 (Chicago Electoral Board) (22 sheets), dismissed for lack of jurisdiction, No. 11 COEL 012 (Cook Cty.Cir.), aff'd, appeal dismissed, 2011 IL App (1st) 110283 (2011); Williams v. Collins, No. 07-EB-ALD-026 (Chicago Electoral Board 2007); Robinson v. Collins, No. 07-EB-ALD-040 (Chicago Electoral Board 2007); Brummit v. Brewer, No. 07-EB-ALF-062 (Chicago Electoral Board 2007); Hughes v. Dominique, No. 03-EB-ALD-148 (Chicago Electoral Board 2003) (12 sheets); Wilson v. Rowans, 03-EB-ALD-122 (Chicago Electoral Board 2003) (25 sheets); Wilson v. Jones, No. 03-EB-ALD-121 (Chicago Electoral Board 2003) (52 sheets); Ervin v. Gillenwater, No. 03-EB-ALD-051 (Chicago Electoral Board 2003) (63 sheets); Ervin v. McQueen, No. 03-EB-ALD-053 (Chicago Electoral Board 2003) (35 sheets); Smith v. Rainey, No. 03-EB-ALD-007 (2003) (38 sheets); Smith v. Shotwell, No. 99-EB-ALD-025 (Chicago Electoral Board 1999); Delgado v. Ladien, No. 99-EB-ALD-126 (Chicago Electoral Board 1999) (16 sheets); Sanchez v. Barker, No. 96-EB-RGA-006 (Chicago Electoral Board 1996) (5 sheets); Simmons v. Wright, No. 95-EB-ALD-037 (Chicago Electoral Board 1995) (20 sheets); Joiner v. Wright, No. 95-EB-ALD-062 (Chicago Electoral Board 1995); Wright v. Wright, No. 95-EB-ALD-154 (Chicago Electoral Board 1995).

The Kane County Electoral Board has voided completely unnumbered nomination papers in Bothwell v. Linstrom, No. 95-EB-2 (Kane Cty. Electoral Board 1995), as have the East Dundee Electoral Board (affirmed in Johnson v. Theis, 282 Ill.App.3d 966, 669 N.E.2d 590, 218 Ill.Dec. 447 (2d Dist. 1996)), the North Chicago Electoral Board (upheld in El-Aboudi v. Thompson, 293 Ill.App.3d 191, 687 N.E.2d 1166, 227 Ill.Dec. 684 (2d Dist. 1997)), the Sycamore Community Unit School District Electoral Board (reluctantly affirmed by the DeKalb County Circuit Court in Montgomery v. Middleton, No. 03-MR-30 (DeKalb Cty.Cir. 2003)), and the Cook County Electoral Board (Harris v. Clark, No.14-COEB-LD-11 (Cook Cty. Electoral Board 2015)).

Kirkwood v. Cook County Officers Electoral Board, No. 06 COEL 002 (Cook Cty.Cir. 2006), aff'g Kirkwood v. Brennan, No. 05-COEB-TC-08 (Cook Cty. Electoral Board 2006), presented a novel circumstance in which the board refused to strike a last unnumbered signature sheet. Its reverse side bore the dated filing stamp of the county clerk, eliminating any doubt concerning the authenticity of the original filing. The board found that “the integrity of the petition in this case” was not in question and there was “no reason to punish the candidate for a minor oversight that does not go to the validity of the signatures on the sheet.” See Transcript of Proceedings at 30 – 31, as the court agreed that under the “very narrow[ly] constrained” “factors of this case,” and “this very narrow issue with this very specific set of facts[,] that the process was secure.” That same board has also rejected the “break” theory, i.e., that one misnumbered or extraneous sheet following within an unbroken sequence of numbered pages “disqualifies all pages that bear a higher number.” Samulelson v. Brewer, No. 11-COEB-JUD-67 (Cook County Electoral Board 2012), aff'd, 2012 IL App (1st) 120581. The court agreed that “one nonconforming petition sheet out of many cannot, by any stretch of the imagination, constitute a complete disregard for the provisions of section 7-10” and that the “one single page fortuitously included” was an “inadvertent inclusion” and “de minimis” error. 2012 IL App (1st) 120581 at ¶¶22, 38, 39, 41.

The appellate decision in Reynolds v. Champaign County Officers Electoral Board, 377 Ill.App.3d 1164, 884 N.E.2d 1175, 318 Ill.Dec. 904 (4th Dist.), appeal denied, 228 Ill.2d 553 (2008), addressed a unique pagination situation in a four-page petition. The pages were submitted with a numbering of “1, 2, 1, 1” corresponding to the sheets that were certified by individual circulators. Discussing El-Aboudi, supra, the Reynolds court found substantial compliance “given the limited number of pages,” no “claim of possible voter confusion,” and the fact that the last two sheets were “easily identified.” 884 N.E.2d at 1178.
