Yesterday when we were finishing up at Pizza Hut the waitress came over and ask if the lady who order the dessert pizzas was still here so she could pay for them. I couldn't find you so I went ahead and paid the $31 for them. I know yesterday was a crazy busy day so I figured I would just take care of it and have you pay me back. I have the receipt for it if you need it.

Hey Amy what exactly was it that they brought to the girls? I spoke to the lady on our way to Casey and explained it was a secret surprise for one of the banquet cheer girls birthday...I inquired if they had a birthday policy like many other restaurants....she said they have a small dessert pizza that they bring out and staff would sing happy birthday...I explained to hold onto the dessert u till I came up to counter and was ready for them to bring it out.....this was not to have cost me any extra. I don't know exactly what happened yesterday but maybe that was because my plans were put into action before I was even at the restaurant. If the girls needed to be at the game and there was a Rush to be leaving why was I not called or messaged explaining to get my butt there!!!!!! As a mother I would think u would see my point of view. Cause we were at pizza Hut almost 40 min after I arrived plenty of time for you to have waited. There was absolutely no excuse please just answer to him when I arrived plenty of time for you to have waited. There was absolutely no excuse to have executed my plans cause u know how to reach me you knew I was coming and there was MORE THAN enough time to have sang and had a slice of dessert pizza....I am going to be calling pizza Hut can u please send me a pic of the receipt so I can. Have it for reference please

She even explained to cut into small squares so that there was enough for all girls to enjoy

I am sorry something was lost in translation. That is not my fault. I paid because I figured Pizza Hut didn't give away enough for all the girls it's usually just the birthday girl.

Can you please contact Pizza Hut and figure this out? I am sorry you are upset with me but I didnt know for sure which parent did this and made the best decision at that moment. Letting us know ahead of time would have helped with the confusion and made it easier to figure out.

As for the 40 minutes we had there, girls were leaving and if I had waited we would have had very few left. Parents were taking children and I told the girls we had one more thing to do. This kept some there longer.

I made. EVERY ATTEMPT TO LET SOMEONE KNOW AHEAD OF TIME I contacted @Scarlett Josh McBride in the am she told me to contact her daughter all

facebook.com
 AHEAD OF TIME I contacted @Scarlett Josh McBride in the am she told me to contact her daughter all attempts of that was a bust so as u know with the parade and the million other hurdle to figure out that day like where or how they change for the game I just took it upon myself to call the pizza place and gave directions I would come to them when I was ready for the pizza

 That's fine you will be reimbursed I will have that to u today, @Traci Castle Becker myself and I know at least 2 other mothers would like to look over the books, where and how our monies have been spent. Including fundraising info and companies used for those. I'll contact you privately 24 hrs to make arrangements on where I can get those to view....thank you

 Ok so here is the deal the fact remains that Amy paid out if her personal pocket for the pizzas. If you were there or not she needed to pay the bill and leave and didn't want to leave with out paying all that was owed! It was not her responsibility to look for you to pay the bill she was in charge of getting Cheerleaders to the game and paying for our pizza. If you feel this was a mistake on the part of pizza Hut then please contact them with that being said Amy needs reimbursement for what she paid out of her pocket for your daughters birthday. You contacted me and asked if you could sing Happy Birthday that was all that was said to me I said that was fine and that I would make sure my daughter knew about it. If you want to reach any of the coaches we do that on our GroupMe messages you know that I know that and so does everyone else so the fact

she wouldn't be if one didn't have Amy Pizzachi Ref: 12-20

Why was I contacted About this on my Private FB then?

Since Pizza Hut already had the pizzas made and ready for the girls and you still had not arrived I understand why they were served if you wanted to make sure that you were involved in the plan than you needed to be there from the beginning or at least message someone or call someone and tell them what the plan is because the ladies at Pizza Hut continue to ask when can we do this who is this for.

The letter in my mail yesterday states otherwise and you can not punish my child because I asked to see your book keeping that has nothing to do with her or un Sportsman like conduct. You will be hearing from an attorney

Per @Scarlett Josh McBride
In light of new information that the CJPCD board of directors was given after the initial letter was sent to you is what prompted with the need to take action. Unfortunately due to the choices you have made and speaking negatively about our organization and taking it upon yourself to contact parents to speak negatively about the organization and to try to get other parents on your bandwagon. Per our bylaws and parent code of conduct this action was taken. The action has nothing to do with your daughter as the letter above states she was an exemplary member of our team. The fact remains you can still follow you can still follow the proper protocol in order to see your financials.
