3rd Annual Conservative Grassroots Activist Conference: Strategy 2018

Here's what some of last year's conference attendees had to say...

Election integrity presentations by Catherine Engelbrecht of True the Vote, and Ardis Cerny from Wisc. were very motivational. They gave me hope that we can do the same in Illinois.

The Friday candidate training by James Marter and American Majority was excellent!

CL Bryant was awesome!

Excellent value – great speakers and interesting topics.

The "lightning round" presentations were great. I learned about some helpful organizations.

The exhibits were well-staffed, and they were able to answer all of my questions.

*Every session was good –
I have 14 pages of notes!*

The Conference begins Friday evening September 14th from 5:00 pm until 8:30 pm with a Meet & Greet. Enjoy a hearty selection of appetizers and a cash bar as you connect with like-minded patriots and leaders of conservative organizations and businesses from around the state. Visit the sponsors and exhibitors tables and learn about helpful organizations and resources. Hear brief presentations by great candidates who are “in it to win it” to become change-makers in Springfield.

Saturday, September 15th, begins at 7:30 am with continental breakfast. Morning conference sessions start with IL State Rep (42nd District) and former candidate for Governor Jeanne Ives. Jeanne will bring us a “State of the State” message, imparting valuable information which you can take back home to help “wake up” friends and neighbors. Immediately following, Jeanne will moderate a panel of some of the states best “turn-around specialists” who are working hard on solutions to help save Illinois: State Representatives Allen Skillicorn (66th District), Tom Morrison (54th District) and analyst & writer Ted Dabrowski of Wirepoints.

Learn about the importance and mechanics of running for local boards (local taxing bodies). A panel discussion follows with conservatives who are serving on boards and facing opposition — sharing their experiences and how to be effective despite the circumstances.

Afternoon sessions will include a lively panel moderated by Illinois’ ultimate watchdogs, Kirk Allen and John Kraft. They’ll host a panel of average citizens who will inspire us all to make a difference. The conference also features info and tips on serving with maximum impact as Precinct Committeemen, an update on election integrity efforts in Illinois, and time to connect and exchange ideas with other activists. The day wraps up with our dinner banquet. We have an incredible keynote speaker: a VERY well-known national conservative hero who is working alongside President Trump to really “drain the swamp.” Check our website for updates, www.ILPAC.org

Who should attend: Illinois residents and taxpayers who want to save our state. (Official conference hash tag: #ILWorthFighting4).
