Dear ECPHD:

During the last few weeks, I have struggled immensely over a decision to accept a new position at another organization. After discussing the opportunity with my family, friends, and work professionals, it certainly appears like the best decision I could make is to accept the offer and with much regret I have formally tenured my resignation at ECPHD.

My official last day will be January 6th, 2012. I will immediately begin the process of recruitment/advertising for my replacement. Minimum requirements as set by IDPH is a bachelors, preferably a masters, 4-years public health experience (2 of which in a supervisory role).

I will cherish the time spent here and wish everyone and the department the very best.

Sincerely,
Eddie McFarland
