Subject: FW: Heinz Ketchup Commercial Contest

Good morning. I'm asking for all of your help...my son-in-law has shot a commercial for Heinz Ketchup (he was the camera man) and the commercial was picked as one of the top ten submissions for the contest. The winning commercial will be based on the number of votes it receives on-line for the next 2 weeks. Please help Mark and Matt out by going to the website and voting for "Now We Can Eat". Thanks so much for your participation.

Cary

Subject: Heinz Ketchup Commercial Contest

Hello everyone,

As some of you may know a Heinz ketchup commercial I shot, titled Now We Can Eat, was entered in the "Top This TV" contest sponsored by Heinz. The thirty second piece was produced, written, directed and edited by Matt Cozza. He did a great job and had a lot friends and family come out to help.

I'm writing all of you because Now We Can Eat was selected as one of the top ten submissions for the contest and now it is up to internet voting to decide the winner. First place in the contest

1/3/2013

Voting for the top ten starts this Monday April 7th and is open for two weeks. Any and everyone is allowed to vote once day over this time period. While I am not a fan of mass emails, I just want to get the word out about our project and ask for your help by casting your internet vote whenever you can and spreading the word to anyone else who would vote.

The link to the contest is:

<http://www.topthistv.com/>

At the time I wrote this email the page with the top ten was not posted yet but it should be just click away. You can also see our commercial on you tube at:

<http://www.youtube.com/watch?v=gRx9LSCf2fg>

Remember, our title is- Now We Can Eat

Thank you all for your help and I'll let you know the outcome,

Mark James

Subject: chain letters and forwarding e-mails while working

Hello all,

Please be reminded that personal e-mails, chain letters, and phone calls are not allowed during working hours or county government equipment (i.e. – computers) to be used at all for personal use.

Therefore, I am reminding every single person to not read, nor send out any personal chain mail, or personal letters, jokes, etc. to your co-workers while you are "on the clock" which is a violation of our company policy which has been in place for several years. We are all, after all, being paid by the taxpayers to provide for particular services or programs and we must always be reminiscent of that very fact.

The thought of the day is allowed to go out only to those persons who signed up to receive it each morning. It is an inspirational message that promotes productivity thru positive mental thoughts, and is a very very short two sentence message.

Thank you for understanding and following our company policies.

Doug

Subject: temporary fax number

If you have a fax to send to me today or tomorrow please send it to 314-652-0802. This is my husband's office and he will bring it to me. My tech guy says I need to buy a new fax machine which I will do this weekend and then you may continue to fax items to me at the 618-288-1636 number. Thanks. Sorry for the inconvenience.
Julie
