

Julie Clark

Objective To work in the medical field to assist residents of Ford and Iroquois counties in reaching their maximum health potential

Experience

April, 2001- Present Ford-Iroquois Public Health Department Watseka, IL

Community Health Planner

- Responsible for grant writing and quarterly narratives of program grants
- Publicity and marketing of the agency and agency programs
- Public Information Officer
- Quality Advisor
- Tobacco Coordinator
- FOIA Officer
- Responsible for community needs assessment and development of the agency's five year community health plan
- Health Insurance Portability and Accountability Compliance Officer
- Development and coordination of new initiatives (Obesity Grant, prostate Grant, Susan G. Komen Foundation Grant, Illinois Breast and Cervical Cancer Grant, Coordinated School Health Grant, Eating Disorder Health Initiative Grant, Illinois Disaster Assistance Project Grant)

July, 2000 – April, 2001 Manpower Watseka, IL

Manpower Service Representative

- Hired with Manager's position promised
- Attaining new customers and servicing current accounts

July, 1988 – June, 2000 Ford-Iroquois Public Health Department Watseka, IL

Health Education Associate

- Responsible for grant writing and quarterly narratives of program grants
- Publicity and Marketing of agency and agency programs
- Public Speaking
- Quality Advisor
- Responsible for community needs assessment and development of the agency's five year community health plan
- Development and implementation of new initiatives (Safety Town, Monster Cigarette Program, Dental Sealant Program, Healthy Families Illinois Program, etc.)

Education 1997-2000 Western Illinois University Macomb, IL

- Various business courses taken as correspondence courses including personnel management, insurance and fundamental risks, ethics in

America
1976-1977 Eastern Illinois University Charleston, IL

- Three semesters in field of business

Interests

A member of the Watseka and Maryville Kiwanis Clubs, St. Luke's Methodist Church Staff Parish Relations Committee Chair, Maryville Outreach Center Board Member, Rural Committee of Local Area Network, Volunteer for the Maryville Food Pantry, Maryville Planning and Zoning Board of Appeals

Awards

1998 Iroquois County Citizen of the Year

1998 Distinguished President Award – Kiwanis

1998 Modern Woodmen of American – Regional Service Award

1996 Disciple Award – First United Methodist Church

Updated May, 2013