

Reggie Phillips Questions

Considering you're a successful businessman and have pledged to not take any pension benefits if elected, turned down a lucrative health care package, can you tell us why you decided to run for State Representative?

What makes you a better choice for the next State Representative of the 110th District?