

1 like, while he is setting this up, I'm sure that we
2 could make copies available to the --

3 MS. GAINES: Would you do that, please?

4 MR. FERGUSON: Yes. We would be happy
5 to.

6 MR. PARKER: Do you want to go ahead
7 now, or do you want to wait?

8 MR. FERGUSON: I think he will be right
9 back in with those copies. I assumed that that was 10 the desire was to have the transcript in front of 11 you as you listened to it.

12 MR O'KEEFE: That or do it like the
13 Methodist Church and each one of us can share. We 14 don't each need a hymnal.

15 MR. FERGUSON: And then, is that the 16 original?

17 MR. COOPER: Pardon me?

18 MR. FERGUSON: Is that the original?

19 MR. COOPER: Yes.

20 MS. GAINES: Ready?

3 JC: Yes, sir.

4 DC: Uh, I got up -- feel like I'm going
5 to be sick tonight for sure.

6 JC: Okay.

7 DC: So, I think it's just me and Hale,
8 so you'll probably have to have someone to stay over
9 or call someone in early.

10 JC: Okay.

11 DC: All right. Thanks.

12 JC: All right. Bye.

13 DC: Bye.

14 (end of tape)

15 MR. DOTSON: Can we have it played one
16 more time?

17 MS. GAINES: Yes. Go ahead and play it
18 one more time.

19 MR. FERGUSON: Might I, might the court
20 reporter be provided with a copy of the transcript.

21 MR. KLOCKE: We want to hear it. I'm
22 still having a problem about whether the transcript
23 comports with the tape recorder.

MR. KLOCKE: I have no objection to 4. We continue to object to 5, it's unnecessary.

MR. FERGUSON: If I might, with respect to number 5, it's been my experience in the, I guess in the criminal trial arena, when we play a statement that we have, at least it's my desire that the jury have a copy of the transcript while the recording is being played, and it is simply an aid
