Good news! Cary spoke with ██████ Devine and he said we do not have to go public and accept bids to purchase anything over $10,000.

But, the state board of elections will have you denote that you are the spouse of Stan who represents the company selling us the solar panels – ethics ha! Like Illinois knows anything about ethics.....

Doug – Based on your phone message – see the attached policy. I highlighted a few areas that may be pertinent but I don't see any reason why we can't advertise in a couple of the local papers.
