

Helpful Links

Cincinnati Academy of Collaborative Professionals

Collaborative Divorce News

Collaborative Law Alliance of New Hampshire

Collaborative Law Institute of Illinois

Collaborative Law Institute of Minnesota

Collaborative Practice Professionals of Illinois

Georgia Collaborative Divorce & Family Law Blog

International Academy of Collaborative Professionals

Mediation Council of Illinois

No Court Divorce Blog

Ohio Family Law Blog

Oregon Assoc. of Collaborative Professionals

Texas Collaborative Law Blog

The Oasis Experience

Erin and Elizabeth are also the vice-chair and chairman of the DCBA Child Advocacy Committee.

Attorneys are invited to attend the next meeting scheduled for

November 8, 2013 at 11:45 AM when 4 child

experts will present on the effects of divorce,

the stages of change for a child, the helpful resources available for a child, and how to use the available resources to help any child cope with a separation or divorce.

Erin Birt has been a family law attorney for the last 10 years. Prior to that she worked as a clerk at the DuPage County State's Attorney's Office in both the criminal division and the child support enforcement division. Erin focuses her practice of law on the delicate issues of family law and strives to reach a private resolution in all matters for the benefit of the parties and their children. To learn more about her services and practice philosophy, please visit our website www.birtlaw.com or contact us at (630) 891-2478.

Related posts:

- Erin Birt is Vice Chair of DCBA's Child Advocacy Committee
- Upcoming Presentations by Erin Birt
- Erin Birt to Present at IACP Forum in Chicago
- Child Support Discussion Topics