

Jordan Matyas

Senior Consultant

Jordan has spent years in and around government. Most recently, Jordan served as Chief of Staff for the Regional Transportation Authority. Prior to that, he served as the Illinois State Director for the Humane Society of the United States. Jordan has worked at almost every level of government including the White House, the Illinois Department of Financial and Professional Regulations, the Illinois Legislature and the City of Chicago Law Department, among others.

Whether it is supporting client's legislative efforts or helping with crisis management, clients will benefit from Jordan's knowledge of government, public affairs and the law.

He earned a B.A. in Public Policy from the George Washington University and a J.D. from John Marshall Law School. He was admitted to the Illinois bar in 2004.

Jordan Likes: Going to the movie theater, cufflinks, playing with Bertha, his English Bulldog.
