Gerry/Paul,

There are two pot heads on the PTA board and one former cocaine user with an arrest record.

Just wanted to know, was it in the "code of ethics" the PTA board signed that drug use is totally cool, if so, then they are covered.

Obviously, we do not screen people well for these boards. You can get a hair sample of the "alleged" drug users if they volunteer it and test for THC up to 6 months back or we can even ask them to voluntarily take a drug test with a nurse witness.

One may have a medical marijuana card so that person would be off the hook, the other one, I know for sure does not.

I just want to know, are we standing behind druggies helping our children in PTA, if so, leave it be.
