Audience Participation:

Lou Anne Majewski, Barrington Hills, stated she submitted a FOIA for information on the sick day payment passed last month for Robert Miller and felt the documents provided were insufficient. She would like an opinion from the attorney if this is a legal payment.

Kevin Watts, Schwartz who also bid on the street sweeper, stated that he felt his sweeper is cheaper and works as well or better than the bid taken.

George Lowe, Cary, thanked Bob & Dianne for their years of service.

Andrew Gasser, Fox River Grove, read Township Code that related to delivery of records and papers that pertain to the office for outgoing officers.

Dave Chapman, Cary, asked the outgoing trustees to provide some input to the new trustees.

Anne Majewski, Barrington Hills, expressed surprise that the Village of Island Lake, which she thought had more road miles, could use the township's old sweeper, and Algonquin Township needs a new sweeper every 5 years. She hoped the new commissioner would be more prudent. She also expressed concern about volunteers getting paid because that is really not volunteering.

Reports:

Supervisor: Thanked Judy for her years of service.

Trustee: Trustee Cardelli, thanked the board. Trustee Fischer said there are good programs with the Conservation District. Trustee Emery presented a recap orally and in writing of the last 4 years.

Clerk: Clerk Lutzow thanked the board and staff.

Highway Commissioner: Highway Commissioner Miller awarded Trustee Emery a pencil for perfect attendance he also thanked the board and said it was a pleasure and thanked the constituents as well. He wished the new elected officials luck and said that the current officials are leaving a house in good order. He said that because of social media and a fear for their jobs under the new commissioner, his employees joined a union effective May 1, 2017-4/30/2022, Local 150. Highway commission Miller asked for approval of the Verizon bill that came in today for $772.09.
