Re: OEIG Complaint #18-00523

Dear Mr. Allen:

The Office of Executive Inspector General (OEIG) has received and reviewed your complaint, and has determined that it is more appropriate for your allegations to be addressed by the Auditor General Inspector General. Therefore, we have referred your complaint to that office. Any future questions that you may have about the status of your complaint should be directed to that office.

Your commitment to ensuring honesty, integrity, and accountability in State government is greatly appreciated and we thank you for bringing this matter to our attention. Furthermore, retaliatory action against someone who makes allegations of misconduct is strictly forbidden and may result in a violation of agency policy and/or State law.<sup>1</sup> If, in the future, you feel that you have been retaliated against based on your raising this complaint, you may file a new complaint with our office.

Sincerely,

Susan M. Haling
Acting Executive Inspector General
