RE: Kirk Allen, et al. v. Algonquin Township, et al.
Case No. 18 CH 238

Dear Ms. Ambroziak:

Per our conversation of Friday February 8, 2019 at 4:50 p.m. concerning the subpoena to Drop Box Inc., I advised you that the subpoena to Drop Box, Inc. has been rejected and cannot be served. You have threatened to file a motion to quash this subpoena. Such a motion would be a nullity as the Drop Box subpoena has been rejected. At this point there is no subpoena to quash.

Please note that a copy of this subpoena was e-mailed and sent to you by U.S. Mail.

Regardless, this issue is now moot as the subpoena to Drop Box, Inc. cannot be served.

Very truly,

James P. Kelly
