Ms. Karen Lukasik, Clerk

Dear Mr. Allen and Ms. Lukasik,

We have completed our investigation into the allegations that Mr. Allen made regarding Robert Miller, Anna May Miller, Douglas Helman and Andrew Rosencrans and allegations that Ms. Lukasik made regarding Andrew Gasser, Charles Lutzow, and Ryan Provenzano.

As you know, we acted in the capacity of investigator because the McHenry County Sheriff's Office and Illinois State Police declined to investigate these matters. As such, it was our intention to have the Illinois State's Attorneys Appellate Prosecutor determine whether criminal charges were warranted and, if so, handle any subsequent prosecution. We recently learned that the Appellate Prosecutor has declined to serve in the capacity of special prosecutor, citing "lack of personnel and resources."

After further deliberation, we have decided not to file a Petition for a Special Prosecutor pursuant to 55 ILCS 5/3-9008(a-10). Upon review of our investigation and relevant law, we do not believe a Petition for Special Prosecutor is warranted as there is insufficient evidence to support criminal charges with respect to the allegations made. We believe further that that these allegations raise issues most appropriately resolved in civil court.

We would be happy to discuss our reasoning with either of you at your convenience. I can be reached at (815) 334-4159.

Sincerely,

Patrick Kenneally
McHenry County State's Attorney
