Re: Cynthia Brzana, et. al. v. Wesley Township, et. al., 19-CH-1143

Dear Rob,

My clients, Wesley Township, Wesley Township Road District, and Leonard McCubbin have been seriously damaged by your clients Cynthia Brzana and Tim Grant. The manner in which they have damaged my clients is described in the four counterclaims filed in the above-captioned litigation. We estimate the damages caused by your client to be well in excess of $100,000. We plan to aggressively pursue these counterclaims and are confident that the judge will provide us with a separate judgment for our damages instead of offsetting the damages your clients may recover in the above-captioned litigation.

In lieu of continuing the litigation further, we are offering to dismiss our counterclaims with prejudice in exchange for:

1. A dismissal with prejudice of all claims in your clients' Amended Complaint.
2. $30,000 to compensate my clients for the attorneys' fees and costs that they have incurred in the above-captioned litigation.

We will provide your clients with fourteen days to consider this offer. If we receive no response by October 7, 2020 we will revoke the offer and aggressively pursue our counterclaims.

Sincerely Yours,

Matthew T. DiCianni
