He does NOT have the IT person on the Agenda for Board Action. Remember we CAN'T get things on the Agenda! He has it in his Supervisor's Report.

I am pleading with you, to not let this bungled up. I personally asked for that computer to go with the Attorney that night. I will be heart sick that I did all that I could and that two months later it was handed over to the wrong hands! If you could PLEASE send another email saying that YOUR people will download the info before turning it over, if we are unable to block it. As it stands your recommendation is that the computer goes to the IT Firm that Bill himself put in place to clean the computer! I know that was NOT your intention, but he will beat that like a drum and the computer will go to the wrong people! I appreciate your help in this matter.

Maripat,

Doesn't Bill need a majority to approve the hiring of a new IT person? I'm not sure how that works. Maybe I can have my own person copy the hard drive before it gets turned over.

Good Morning Julie,

Again I am pleading with you NOT to turn Linda's Computer over to the IT person that Bill has hired! He wants that computer so that he can wipe it clean!! If there were no issues with it, it would have been turned over to Anthony weeks ago! PLEASE DO NOT LET LINDA'S COMPUTER BE TURNED OVER TO THE NEW IT PERSON. I am pleading with you! You have added in your email that your recommendation is that it go with which ever firm is hired. Once that computer is gone, it is gone.

I spoke with Linda Youngs attorney today about the resolution of the pending lawsuit. My view is that the only pending issue remaining in her prayer for relief is his firm's attorney's fees and costs. He has made a demand of $11,789 for those fees. I will discuss the demand with the insurance adjuster and will keep everyone posted as to her response. My understanding based on speaking with the attorney is that if we resolve this issue, they will dismiss the pending lawsuit. This should not be discussed during the open session of the meeting.

I send a follow up request to the 5 forensic audit firms asking a couple questions. So far I've heard back from two but am holding off forwarding the responses until I hear from everyone so I can put it all in one email. I will do my best to send it out by early afternoon tomorrow.

Just a reminder that I would like the Township to resolve the issue of which firm to use for IT functions at the next meeting. My recommendation is that Linda Youngs's computer be turned over to whichever firm you decide to hire.

I do not plan on being at tomorrow's meeting, but just a heads up that Ms. Youngs' attorney will be at the meeting.
