Springfield Airport Authority Board of Commissioners Votes to Commence Litigation Against City of Springfield

SPRINGFIELD, ILLINOISA resolution to commence litigation against the City of Springfield was passed by the Springfield Airport Authority Board of Commissioners at its regular monthly meeting on Tuesday, December 21, 2021. The complaint involves the City of Springfield's non-compliance with airport revenue diversion laws and regulations. The measure passed with commissioners Shea, Delheimer, Barghouti-Hardwick and Vala voting in favor of the resolution, Commissioners Franke and Haley voting against and Commissioner Houston voting present. The Authority will bring on board special counsel to assist with the proceedings.

The Springfield Airport Authority Board of Commissioners is made up of seven members with the four appointments of Houston, Shea, Franke and Haley by the Mayor and the three appointments of Barghouti-Hardwick, Delheimer and Vala by the Sangamon County Board.
