Indictments Unsealed Against Former Campton Hills
Police Chief and Officers

ST. CHARLES, IL – The Kane County State's Attorney's Office and Illinois State Police announce that indictments by a Kane County Grand Jury were unsealed today against former Campton Hills Police Chief Steven Millar, former Campton Hills Police Officers Scott Coryell and Daniel Hatt, and current Campton Hills Police Officer Douglas Kucik.

Kane County State's Attorney Jamie L. Mosser alleges that between January 2018 and February 2023 firearms were unlawfully sold that were in police department possession in the evidence room and reports were filed and in some cases amended to facilitate the sales and obstruct investigators.

This morning all four defendants surrendered themselves to the Kane County Sheriff's Office and appeared in court. Because none of the charges are detainable pretrial under Illinois law, the defendants were released under special conditions while their cases are pending. Those conditions include a ban on possessing firearms, communicating with their co-defendants, or traveling out of state without the Court's permission. Their next court date is set for December 12, 2025, at 9 a.m. in Courtroom 305 of the Kane County Judicial Center.

Steven Millar, age 60, is charged with the following 41 counts:

- Money Laundering, Class 3 Felony
- Forgery, Class 3 Felony (9 counts)
- Official Misconduct, Class 3 Felony (22 counts)
- Misapplication of Funds, Class 3 Felony
- Theft between $500 and $10,000, Class 3 Felony (2 counts)
- Wire Fraud, Class 3 Felony
- Delivery of Firearm Before 72-Hour Waiting Period Expired, Class 4 Felony (5 Counts)

Scott Coryell, age 57, is charged with the following 10 counts:

- Forgery, Class 3 felony (2 counts)
- Official Misconduct, Class 3 felony (4 counts)
- Wire Fraud, Class 3 Felony
- Theft between $500 and $10,000, Class 3 Felony (2 counts)
- Obstructing Justice by Destroying Evidence, Class 4 Felony

Daniel Hatt, age 65, is charged with the following 6 counts:

- Money Laundering, Class 3 Felony
- Forgery, Class 3 felony
- Official Misconduct, Class 3 Felony (2 counts)
- Wire Fraud, Class 3 Felony
- Obstructing Justice by Destroying Evidence, Class 4 Felony

Douglas Kucik, age 42, is charged with the following 7 counts:

- Theft between $500 and $10,000, Class 3 Felony
- Official Misconduct, Class 3 Felony (2 counts)
- Money Laundering, Class 3 Felony
- Wire Fraud, Class 3 Felony
- Delivery of Firearm Before 72-Hour Waiting Period Expired, Class 4 Felony (2 Counts)

The investigation was conducted by the Illinois State Police Special Investigations Division.

“The public must be able to trust that those charged with enforcing the law are also upholding the law,” said ISP Director Brendan F. Kelly. “After a thorough, years long investigation, ISP Special Agents submitted evidence of criminal behavior among certain Campton Hills Police Department Officers to the Kane County State’s Attorney’s Office, in an effort to hold these individuals accountable for their actions, and restore public trust.”

The charges against these defendants are not proof of guilt. They are presumed innocent and are entitled to a fair trial in which it is the state’s burden to prove guilt beyond a reasonable doubt.
